

Short Biography

Write a short biography [100 -150words] for any one freedom fighter who inspires you.

Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel

Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel known as the Iron man of India , was a key figure in the Indian Independence movement . Born on 31 October 1875, in Nadial Gujarat. Patel was a lawyer by profession and played a crucial role in struggle for freedom.

He was a close associate of Mahatma Gandhi and led the Bardoli Satyagraha, in 1928 which earned him the title Sardar or leader. Patel was helpful in integration of over 500 princely states into the Indian union after independence ensuring the country's unity and stability.

He served as the first Deputy Prime Minister and home Minister of India where he worked tirelessly to unite the nation. Sardar Patel passed away on 15 December 1950, but his legacy as a unifier and a strong leader continues to inspire generations.

Descriptive Paragraph

Write a description of something you saw or experienced .

This year, I enrolled my name in three legged race for School's annual sports day. The three -legged race is done in pairs one leg of each of the participant is tied together. The participants have to run to the finish line. My best friend and classmate Anurima, and I decided to take part in this. When our legs together we practised running just before the race began.

We decided we would count one-two one -two so that we would not miss a step. When the sports teacher, blew the whistle, Anurima and I took off and managed to reach halfway to the finish line. Just I stepped on a pebble. I yelled in pain and the two of us toppled. Thankfully, neither of us was hurt. That was the end of our three -legged race!